BACKGROUND STORY

In an old Templar church in Luz, France, young explorer Adam Venture studies relics that were brought back from the Holy Land during the Crusades. He comes across the memoirs of Charles L'Heureux, a knight who joined the Third Crusade with Richard the Lionheart.

The knight writes that during his travels in the year 1191, he, Charles L'Heureux, was given an old scroll. Once he understood its meaning, he asked permission to split off from his regiment that was headed for Jerusalem, and instead traveled East by himself.

The memoirs then point Adam to the hidden scroll, buried in a tomb underneath the church. The scroll is filled with ancient symbols. They mention a mysterious labyrinth of caves and grotto's, guarding theheadwaters of four rivers: Pishon, Gihon, Tigris, Euphrates.

With a shock, Adam recognizes the four legendary rivers from the Book of Genesis that mark the location of the Garden of Eden... Could it be?

Adam convinces the Clairvaux Corporation to finance his search for humanity's birthplace. They send along Professor Jacques Saint-Omair, a Clairvaux confidant and expert of antiquity and ancient languages. Also joining Adam and the professor are Adam's girlfriend Evelyn, and, of course, his faithful dog. Together, the team embarks on an epic Search for the Lost Garden.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN

...And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads...
